

What do I need to do to be a successful, independent inquirer?

- Figure out what I want/need to learn more about
- Talk about my learning with others
- Learn from my mistakes
- Ask questions to help me learn
- Plan ahead
- Set a manageable goal
- Stay focused on what I am doing
- Try to work things out before I ask others for help
- Persist with my learning even when it is challenging
- Be organized and ready to begin my learning
- Ask other people for feedback
- Take a risk and try new things
- Go beyond the things I already know
- Step outside my comfort zone
- Think before I speak
- Give myself encouragement
- Use 'self talk' to help me through
- Use my time efficiently
- Be prepared to change my plan when it is not working
- Share my successes and failures with others
- Explain how my thinking has changed
- come up with ideas for how to find out answers to our questions
- use many different ways to find out
- Know how to find the relevant information that will help answer my questions
- Use resources ethically and responsibly
- Use the internet safely and responsibly
- Verify the information I gather
- Share my learning in a way that is interesting to others
- Share my learning in new and different ways
- Offer my help to others
- Give helpful feedback to others
- Make sure I don't get in the way of other people's learning
- Reflect on my learning and identify my strengths and needs
- Keep my things organized and tidy
- Stay curious
- Enjoy my learning!
